Each director shall discharge the director's duties as a director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee of the board, and each officer with discretionary authority shall discharge the officer's duties under that authority (i) in good faith; (ii) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and (iii) in a manner the director or officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Association.

(b) Reliance on Information, Reports, etc.. In discharging duties, a director or officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by: (i) one or more officers or employees of the Association whom the director or officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (ii) legal counsel, a public accountant or another person as to matters the director or officer reasonably believes are within such person's professional or expert competence. A director or officer is not acting in good faith if the director or officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by this Section 5.2(b) unwarranted.

(c) Liability to Association or Its Members. A director or officer shall not be liable as such to the Association or its members for any action taken or omitted to be taken as a director or officer, as the case may be, if, in connection with such action or omission, the director or officer performed the duties of the position in compliance with this Section 5.2.

Further, this does not preclude discounts to members for merchandise or services that are provided equally to all members or all participants in a particular activity sponsored by the Association.

(e) Association Debts. Debts of the Association shall be satisfied prior to any dissolution of the Association. See Article II of the Articles of Association for further provisions in the event of dissolution of the Association. The members of the Association shall be informed that they may be liable for any debts incurred by the Association to third parties in the event of dissolution of the Association. Dissolution of the Association requires approval by the Board of Directors (Board of Directors).

Section 5.2 Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest arises when any “responsible person” or any “party related to a responsible person” has an “interest adverse to the Association.” A “responsible person” is any individual in a position to exercise substantial influence over the affairs of the Association, and specifically includes, without limitation, directors and officers of the Association. A “party related to a responsible person” includes his or her extended family (including spouse, ancestors, descendants and siblings, and their respective spouses and descendants), an estate or trust in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family has a beneficial interest or a fiduciary responsibility, or an entity in which the responsible person or any member of his or her extended family is a director, trustee or officer or has a financial interest. “An interest adverse to the Association” includes any interest in any contract, transaction or other financial relationship with the Association, and any interest in an entity whose best interests may be impaired by the best interests of the Association including, without limitation, an entity providing any goods or services to or receiving any goods or services from the Association, an entity in which the Association has any business or financial interest, and an entity providing goods or services or performing activities similar to the goods or services or activities of the Association.

(b) Disclosure. If a responsible person is aware that the Association is about to enter into any transaction or make any decision involving a conflict of interest, (a “conflicting interest transaction”), such person shall: (i) immediately inform those charged with approving the conflicting interest transaction on behalf of the Association of the interest or position of such person or any party related to such person; (ii) aid the persons charged with making the decision by disclosing any material facts within the responsible person’s knowledge that bear on the advisability of the Association entering into the conflicting interest transaction; and (iii) not be entitled to vote on the decision to enter into such transaction.

(c) Approval of Conflicting Interest Transactions. The Association may enter into a conflicting interest transaction provided either:

(i) The material facts as to the responsible person’s relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the Board of Directors or to a committee of the Board of Directors that authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction, and the board or committee in good faith authorizes, approves or ratifies the conflicting interest transaction by the affirmative vote of a majority of the disinterested directors on the board or committee, even though the disinterested directors are less than a quorum; or

(ii) The material facts as to the responsible person’s relationship or interest and as to the conflicting interest transaction are disclosed or are known to the members, and the conflicting interest transaction is specifically authorized, approved, or ratified in good faith by a vote of the members entitled to vote thereon; or
